UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Advocates Rigid Censorship of Moving Pictures.

He Sees Improvement in Economic Conditions.

"The rift in the clouds of social intemperance and seeking after extremes in pleasure is the reaction against the jungle dance of the present day and the advocacy of more right deceasorship in picture shows," declared the Rev. Robert Schell of the First Christian church in a sermon at the United Thanksgiving service of the downtown churches this morning. "The clouds of the degeneracy of womanhood, manifested by increase of divarce and immedesty in dress, show a rift with the triumph of the woman suffrage law and our faith in woman's political power," he said.
